JOHN CLARKE, OF HARTFORD AND SAYBROOK, CONN., AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS.

John Clarke, Puritan Ancestor of the family whose record is here compiled, is believed to have come from Great Mundon, Hertfordshire, England, in 1632. He first settled at Newtowne (now Cambridge), Mass., but removed with Hooker's Company to Hartford, Conn., in 1636, where John Clarke's name is on the monument erected to the first settlers of Hartford, in Center Church Cemetery.

He was a soldier in the Pequot War in 1637, and served as a juror in Hartford in 1641. He removed with his son-in-law, Wm. Pratt, to Saybrook, Conn., in 1645 or 1646. In 1647 he was appointed by the General Court, in company with Capt. John Mason, to carry on the building of the fort at Saybrook.

He was one of the nineteen petitioners to Charles II. in 1662, for the Charter secured by Governor Winthrop. This Charter was hidden in the famous Charter Oak, and is now in a fine state of preservation in a glass front safe in the State Capitol at Hartford. John Clarke was one of the most prominent citizens of Saybrook. There seems to have been a division of the church in 1662 or 1663, and he, with a number of others, moved to Norwich, Conn., and established a church there.

Shortly after this, he removed to Milford, Conn., where his brother George was living, and September 24, 1665, he received his dismissal from the church in Norwich, and was admitted to the church in Milford, where he died, leaving a will made in 1673. He was a large land owner.

"On June 4, 1673, Mr. John Clarke and Sergeant Daniel Buckingham were ordained Ruling Elders." Mr. Clarke died February 5, 1674. (Quoted from Milford Church Records.)

All the facts given in regard to the first five generations in this record, are taken from copies of family records furnished me by Mr. John E. Bull, of Centerbrook, Conn., and Mr. Henry I. Clarke, of Saybrook, Conn., without whose courteous help it is doubtful if this record could have been compiled.

Mr. Henry Clark's record extends as far as Beaumont Clark, my great great great grandfather; and Mr. Bull's record, as far as Alvin Clark, my great-grandfather, and his daughter, Helen Clark. The record in possession of Mrs. A. C. Abbott, of Warren, Ill., third wife of my great-grandfather, Alvin Clark, begins with dates for Beaumont Clark II., and descendants, but also gives names of his ancestors, as follows: Beaumont Clark, Nathaniel Clark, and John Clark.

All western records, taken from the Alvin Clark Bible at Warren, Ill., correspond so closely with the eastern records of Mr. Bull and Mr. Clark, as to leave no room for doubt that their record completes ours. The record in the Warren Bible was begun by Beaumont Clark II., father of Alvin Clark, and is very incomplete.

In every instance I have carefully compared the different copies which have come into my possession, and have taken every possible precaution against mistakes.

Henry Cl. Clarke record says, "Married a Miss Cooley."

1. The date of birth of John Clarke, emigrant from Great Munden, England, is not known. He reached Newtowne, Mass., in 1632, and died at Milford, Conn., on February 5, 1674. He resided successively at Hartford, Saybrook, Norwich, and Milford, Conn. He had four children by his first marriage, and was married a second time to Mrs. Mary Ward Fletcher. They had no children. All that has been learned of his life, from town and church records, has been given in the previous pages.

Children by first marriage were:

2. I. John Clarke ii. No date of birth. Married Rebeckah Porter.*
3. II. Joseph Clarke ii. No date of birth. Died at sea, 1663, leaving a wife but no children.
4. III. Elizabeth ii. married Lieut. Wm. Pratt, and settled in what is now Essex.
5. IV. Sarah Clarke ii. Born 1633, died 1721. Married Deacon Simon Huntington, who removed to Norwich in 1660. He was the Grandfather of that Sam'l Huntington who signed the Declaration of Independence.

Henry Cl. Clarke record -

2. John Clarke ii. (John i.), son of John Clarke, the settler, was married to Rebeckah Porter on October 16, 1650. His wife is supposed to have been a daughter of John Porter, of Windsor. He was killed by a cart which was overturned upon him September 21, 1677. His widow, Rebeckah, afterwards married a Spencer, and died January 9, 1683. (See Saybrook Records.)

Children:

6. I. Rebeckah Clarke iii. Born January 20, 1652; died October 14, 1704. Married 1674, to Abraham Watrous.
7. II. John Clarke iii., born November 17, 1655; died February 17, 1735. Married Rebeckah Beaumont.*
8. III. James Clarke iii., born September 29, 1657; died August, 1659.
9. IV. Joseph Clarke iii. Estate settled in 1692.
10. V. Sarah Clarke iii., died January 25, 1723. Married Samuel Willard June 6, 1683.
11. VI. Samuel Clarke iii., born April 25, 1675; died 1750. Married Mary Kirtland December 14, 1699.

7. Major John Clarke iii. (John ii., John i.), son of John Clarke and Rebeckah Porter Clarke, was born in Saybrook, Conn. November 17, 1655, and died February 17, 1735. He was married December 17, 1684, to Rebeckah Beaumont, born in Saybrook, Conn., September 17, 1659, daughter of Wm. and Lydia Danforth Beaumont. Major John Clarke was a sergeant in King Philip's war, was captain and major in the French and Indian War, and was in command at Saybrook Fort during the interim. His wife died April 3, 1742.

(Mr. Bull sent me copies of these commissions. The originals are in possession of Mr. Norman B. Clark, Appleton, Wis.—H. M. K.)

14. III. John iv., born June 11, 1689; died December 16, 1777. Married, first, Sarah Jones, May 6, 1712; second, Phebe Nott, in 1759. "Settle Patch"
15. IV. Joseph iv., born January 16, 1690; died March 12, 1691.
16. V. Joseph iv., born January 23, 1692; died September 10, 1770. Married, first, September 25, 1712, Lydia Grenell; second, Priscilla —. Settled in Chester.
17. VI. Nathaniel iv., born July 19, 1694; died August 21, 1772. Married Mary Wrenne, or Urenne, a French Huguenot.*
18. VII. Temperance iv., born July 20, 1698; died March, 1705.
19. VIII. Samuel iv., born June 26, 1702; died 1757. Married Mary Minor July 19, 1722; second, married Mary Jones, daughter of Caleb and Rachel Clark Jones, of Farmington, Conn.

John, the first of Major Clarke's sons, settled in what is now Centerbrook, Conn. His children were: Leramiah, who married Josiah Nott; Temperance, who married Ed. Bull; Abigail, who married John Pratt; and Jerusha, Sarah and John. Samuel (the last of Major Clarke's sons), had children—Samuel, Joanna, Deborah, Stephen, Danforth, Hester, Titus, Mary, Rebeckah and Patience.

17. Nathaniel Clarke iv. (John iii., John ii., John i.), son of Major John Clarke and Rebeckah Beaumont Clarke, was born in Saybrook July 19, 1694, and died August 21, 1772. He was married May 10, 1715, to Mary Wrenne, a French Huguenot, born 1690, died December 30, 1754. Nathaniel Clarke was graduated from Yale in 1714, and prepared for the Episcopalian ministry. He was also a magistrate and a lawyer. He located in that part of Saybrook now called Ivoryton, where he owned all the land in sight, and he built one of the earliest sawmills on the stream, in Ivoryton. Mr. Bull wrote: "I have an old account book that belonged to him, in which is a lawyer's plea, and a sermon. He had a negro slave whom he used to hire out." Ivoryton was originally part of Saybrook

Children:

20. I. Nathaniel v., born December 23, 1716; died in the French and Indian War, 1759.
21. II. John v., born January 30, 1719; died January 25, 1801. Married, first, Elizabeth Williams; second, Mary Pratt.

24. V. William v., born 1725; died September 16, 1803. Married, first, Jane Turner, August 27, 1767; and second, Naomi Pratt.

According to Mrs. Bull. Does not agree with Clarke record.

Numbering as revised, is Mr. Bull's.

later on Mares' Hill

6. Nephew John (Burrin)

25. VI. George v., born 1729; died July 7, 1798. Married Bathsheba Pratt.
26. VII. Christopher v., born 1736; died February 22, 1820. Married Peninah Nott October 30, 1766.
27. VII. Beaumont v., born December 27, 1739; died September 10, 1827. Married Hannah Bull May, 1764.*
28. IX. Annah v., married Daniel Clark July 7, 1766, and Stephen Atwater June 20, 1781.

Mr. Henry I. Clark, of Saybrook, to whom I am indebted for a part of my record, is a descendant of Peter Clark, as is also Mr. John Bull, of Centerbrook, Conn.

27. Beaumont Clarke v. (Nathaniel iv., John iii., John ii., John i.), son of Nathaniel and Mary Wrenne Clarke, was born in Saybrook December 27, 1739, and died September 10, 1827. He was married in May, 1764, to Hannah Bull, daughter of Capt. Edward and Temperance Clarke Bull, born in Saybrook April 23, 1743; died July 24, 1812.

Beaumont Clarke served in the Revolutionary War in Capt. Dan Platt's company, in the Seventh Regiment, commanded by Lieut. Col. Wm. Worthington. These militia regiments were in service when called upon, and Beaumont Clarke marched to New Haven, Conn., at the alarm, April 27, 1777. Time of service, five days. This record can be found on page 178, Vol. 8, "Revolution Rolls and Lists," and also on page 361 of "Revolution Lists and Returns."

29. I. Temperance vi., born August 23, 1764; died November 20, 1846. Unmarried.
30. II. Beaumont vi., born July 25, 1767; died October 5, 1857. Married Abigail Spencer May 21, 1789.*
31. III. Hannah vi., born July 19, 1770; died January 28, 1848. Unmarried.
32. IV. John vi., born September 8, 1773; died April 4, 1840. Unmarried.

34. VI. Zina vi., born January, 1779; died March 7, 1841. Unmarried.
35. VII. Edward vi., born September 10, 1782; died September 7, 1872. Unmarried.
36. VIII. Azubah vi., born August 12, 1785; died March 23, 1866. Married Joseph Banning October 24, 1805.

30. Captain Beaumont Clarke vi. (Beaumont v., Nathaniel iv., John iii., John ii., John i.), son of Beaumont and Hannah Bull Clarke, was born in Saybrook, July 25, 1767, and died October 5, 1857. He was married May 21, 1789, to Abigail Spencer, born in that part of Saybrook now called Westbrook, January 14, 1770, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Clark Spencer. Abigail Clarke died January 6, 1843. When Capt. Clarke removed from Saybrook to Essex, Conn., and thence to Syracuse, N. Y., about 1820, he sold his large, two-story house to the town to be used as an Almshouse. Afterwards,

No. 30 spells his own name "Beaumont." See R Beaumont, p. 2. In old records it is "Beimont" and even "Bernoud". Warren Bibee calls Abigail, "Nabbe".

What further record of this family was give in the (Warren Dec.) Clarke Bible (kept by Beaumont ("Beaumont") Clark 2nd,) is recorded in the addenda.

JOHN CLARKE OF HARTFORD AND SAYBROOK, CONN.

when the town was divided, it was sold to Mr. Alpheus Knowles, from whom it passed to his two daughters. Later, Capt. Clarke removed to Grass Lake, Mich., where he and his wife died and were buried. A new house now stands on the lot where the old Nathaniel Clarke house once stood in Saybrook. Beaumont Clarke is believed to have been captain of a coasting vessel in southern trade.

Children:

37. I. Beaumont third, vii., born May 19, 1790; died September 3, 1809, at Demarara, South America, of yellow fever. "His father was in southern trade." (Record of Mrs. A.C. Abbott.)

47. XI. Female infant, born February 13, 1812; died same day.

41. Alvin Clark vii. (Capt. Beaumont vi., Beaumont v., Nathaniel iv., John iii., John ii., John i.), son of Captain Beaumont Clarke and Abigail Spencer Clarke, was born November 13, 1798, at Saybrook, Conn., and died at Warren, Ill., January 20, 1875. He was married, first, to Polly Riley November 27, 1822. Polly R. Clark died April 16, 1828. She was born at Salina, N. Y., November 10, 1804.

On June 28, 1829, at Manlius, N. Y., Alvin Clark married Jane M. Hare, who was born at Whitestown, N. Y., March 29, 1809, and died at Grass Lake, Mich., July 23, 1860.

On January 7, 1862, Alvin Clark married Mrs. A. C. Smith at Grass Lake, Mich. She still lives (1912) at Warren, Ill. She married again after Alvin Clark's death, and is Mrs. A. C. Abbott. The Bible record made by Beaumont Clark is in her possession. One who knew him said: "Alvin Clark was a well bred, religious gentleman; a Republican in politics."

Children of Alvin and Polly Clark:

48. I. Helen Maria viii., born September 29, 1823; died April 28, 1898.*

Alvin Francisco's children on the mother's side trace descent from Col. Wm A. Clark of Naples, N. Col in Rev. War. Governor Clark of New York was Mrs Smith-Clark-Abbott's cousin.

54. III. Lucy Jane viii., born at Manlins, N. Y., October 30, 1834; died at Tabor, Ia., about 1871. Married Harvey Austin.
55. IV. Chauncey L. viii., born at Grass Lake, Mich., May 17, 1838; living (1912) near Wichita, Kan.

It was, I believe, in the time of Alvin Clark, that the final letter was dropped from the name Clarke.

48. Helen Maria Clark viii. (Alvin vii., Capt. Beaumont vi., Beaumont v., Nathaniel iv., John iii., John ii., John i.), daughter of Alvin Clark and Polly Riley Clark, was born at Salina, N. Y., September 29, 1823, and died at Wichita, Kan., April 28, 1898. She was married January 1, 1840, to Charles Francisco, born June 3, 1816, at Jermain, N. Francisco-- Myers---Kyes descent from John Alden and Priscilla Mullins (Nolines)

John Alden, born, 1599, in England. Originally employed in making repairs on the Mayflower. For fifty years a Colonial magistrate. Married Priscilla Mullins of Plymouth Colony in 1621.

They had eleven children, of whom Elizabeth born 1624, was the eldest. She was married Duxbury, Mass., in 1644 to William Pabodie of Little Compton, Rhode Island- "A man of great respectability." Wm. Pabodie was born in 1600 and died Dec 13th, 1707, at Little Compton Rhode Island.

William and Elizabeth Alden Pabodie had thirteen children (two girls named Priscilla so that their youngest daughter, Lydia, stands twelfth and youngest in the list of names.

Lydia Pabodie married Daniel Grenell. She born on Oct 3rd, 1667. Her son was named Pabodie Grenell (Have not the date of his birth.)

Pabodie Grenell married Ruth Nettleton and their daughter, Lydia Grenell, was born Aug. 1723.

Lydia Grenell was married on August 28th 1843, to Joseph Spencer first. This Joseph Spencer 1st was the son of Collet and Martha Spencer (see Spencer genealogy on following pages) Joseph and Lydia Grenell Spencer's first son was born Aug 12th, 1744 and died Nov 15th, 1793. Named Joseph Spencer 2nd.

Joseph Spencer 2nd, (born 1744) in Westbrook town of Say Brook, was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth, born Apr 9th, 1744 (dau. of John and Elizabeth Williams Clark) whom Joseph Spencer 2nd married, Nov 2nd, 1769. Elizabeth Clark Spencer died, June 1777; he married, second, Lucy, dau. of Samuel and Mary Colt Post.

I have found a number of mistakes in dates - careless copying, evidently. Cannot

The eldest daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Clark Spencer was Nabby, of Abigail Spencer, born Jan. 14th, 1770 (I find her date in the Warren Ill., Clark Bible, and received in a genealogical list from Say Brock, also.) She died, Jan 6th, 1843, at Cross Lake, Mich. (See pp5 and 6 of this record) She was married May 21st, 1789, to Beaumont Clark 2nd, eldest son of our ancestor, Beaumont Clarke 1st., who served in the Revolutionary War. (See record, p. 4)

Note- Both the family of our Joseph Spencer and that of General Joseph Clark Spencer, intermarried with the Brainerd and Cone families.

III

Descent from the Spencer family

- 2 Gerrard, or Gerard, or Jarrard, Spencer, founder of the Haddam and Say Brook families of this name, was born in Stotfield, England, and was the son of Gerrard Spencer and nephew of Sir Richard Spencer. He came to New England in 1632 and was admitted freeman of Mass. Bay Colony Mar. 9th, 1637. He was a resident of Cambridge, Mass., in 1634. Married Hannah—

Their children—

1. John, b. at Lynn Mass., 1638 Died, Aug. 3, 1682.
2. Hannah, b. 1640. Married Dan'l Brainerd.
3. Aline, b. 1641 Married Ist., Thos Brooke 2nd, Thos. Shailer
(should be Sarah)
4. Mehitable, b. 1642 Married Dan'l Corie.
5. — THOMAS, from whom this family is descended— married Elizabeth Pates, and removed to Westbrook, Conn., before 1679.

There were six more children— Sam'l, Willie, Nathaniel, (9) Rebecca, (who married first, J. Vennard and second, John Fehner) 10th Puth, 11th, Timothy.

4 Thomas Spencer (No. 5 above) was born in Lynn Mass., and removed with his parents to Haddam Conn. His second son was born in Say Brook Apr Ist 1769. His third son, Caleb, born Jan. (or June?) 18th, married Hannah— and their oldest child, Joseph Ist, born Apr. 18th, 1720, is our ancestor.

- 5 Joseph Spencer Ist, b. 1720, married Lydia Crenell, descendant of John Alden, and their eldest son, Joseph Spencer 2nd, was born Aug. 12th, 1744, and married Elizabeth Clark, Nov. 1769.

6 Their dau. was Nabbe or Abigail Spencer, who married Beaumont Clark 2nd, our ancestor.
See page 5, of the printed record.

IV

Our Bates Descent.

Elizabeth Bates, who married Thomas, son of Gerrard and Hannah Spencer, was-

Daughter of James Bates 2nd of Dorchester Mass son of James Bates 1st of Dorchester, born at Lydd, Kent, England, 1532. Came to Dorchester in 1635. Married Alice---

Thomas Spencer and Elizabeth Bates Spencer had three sons, of whom CALFB, (the third,) is our ancestor, as given on ~~the~~ previous page.

It is not clear to me in the above statement whether Jas. 1st or Jas. 2nd was born in Lydd.

Mons Davidson- see page 7 of printed record.

Mons Davidson was born near Bergen, Norway, Jan. 3rd, 1837, and came to this country with his parents when thirteen years of age. They arrived in Chicago during the epidemic of cholera raging there. His parents and brothers and sisters died of the malady, only himself and his brother Peter surviving.

They went to reside with relatives in southern Wis., and later came to Warren, Ill. to live. He attended the Public Schools, and united with the Free Baptist Church there, later. Entered Hilledale College, Mich., in 1861. In the fall of 1863, he enlisted in the Eleventh Mich. Cavalry and served until the close of the war. Oct., 1865, when he was honorably discharged. He returned to Warren to reside. The family moved to Kansas in 1876, and lived four years (claim). After getting title to the land, they moved to Wellington, Kans., in 1880, where his home was until his death, Oct. 12th, 1907, from a stroke of paralysis which occurred four years previous.

2. George S. b. Mar. 30th, 1832
3. Frances--

No further record. First two names given in Warren (Clark) Bible. Third name supplied by Mr. Bull of Centerbrook, Conn.
 Did these children live, and leave descendants?

Elizur Clark, ninth child of Beaumont Clark, born Oct. 5th, 1807, in that part of Say Brook called Centerbrook, married first, Jerusha N. Spencer, in Nov. 1825; and second, Augusta M. Peck, who was living in Lyme, Conn., in 1910.
 Children-

1. Lewis Elizur, b. Aug 14th 1827, died young.
2. Chauncey Beaumont, b. Jan 6th 1829, d. 1884
3. Lewis Elizur, b. July 2, 1831 Died July 26, 1838--? (Named for dead brother.)
4. Lucy Jane b. Jan 18th, 1833 d. May 17, 1858

Thus far was in the Warren Bible of the Clark family, but there are annoying mistakes in dates. Cannot tell which is right- Mr Bull's of Centerbrook, or the person who copied this Warren II record.

5. Harriet Elizabeth, b. Oct 15th 1834. Living in 1910, in Syracuse, N. Y. She is Harriet Avery.

6. Henry Seymour. b. Aug 20th, 1836. Died, 1838.

7. Hester Maria, b. July 20th, 1838. Died 1838

8. Infant son, born and died, 1841.

9. John Seymour, b. Dec. 3rd, 1844. Living, 1910, 105 Amherst Ave., Syracuse, N. Y.

10. Mary Danforth, b. June 6th. 1847.

Descendants?

Possibly five of this family grew up. The Clark of Syracuse would have the record.

Tenth child of Beaumont Clark 2nd, was Beaumont Clark 4th (Beaumont 3rd died at age of 19) married Melissa Simonds in 1831.

No record of family, but OUR Bible record says
